h. Impact of the event : ANGEL Info Day 2024 aimed at green entrepreneurship and leadership within a university context, can have a profound impact consecutively for our various stakeholders. Students gain knowledge about green entrepreneurship—how to start and manage businesses that prioritize environmental sustainability. They learn about the challenges and opportunities in this sector. Workshops and sessions can enhance skills in sustainable business practices, leadership, and innovation. Hearing success stories and engaging with thought leaders can inspire students to pursue careers in green entrepreneurship and leadership.

The university can enhance its reputation as a leader in sustainability and innovation by hosting or promoting such programs. The event can strengthen ties between the university and the local or global community by addressing common sustainability goals. Building relationships with businesses, NGOs, and government entities focused on green initiatives can lead to collaborative projects and funding opportunities.

For the industry partner: Companies may find opportunities to collaborate on projects, research, or innovations with the university. Engaging with educational programs aligns with companies' CSR goals by supporting and promoting sustainable practices. Promoting green entrepreneurship helps advance environmental sustainability by encouraging the development of eco-friendly business practices and technologies.

For the community: Projects and initiatives born from such programs can address local or global environmental challenges, contributing to broader social and ecological benefits.

ANGEL Info Day program focusing on green entrepreneurship and leadership can create a ripple effect throughout the university and beyond, fostering a culture of innovation and sustainability. By educating and inspiring students, engaging faculty, and building community and industry partnerships, the program can play a crucial role in advancing both green entrepreneurship and leadership.

1. Universitas Gadjah Mada (UGM)

- a. Name of Organiser: Faculty of Economics and Business, UGM
- b. Short description of the event:

The ANGEL Infoday coincided with FEB UGM's routine research dissemination events. Held on Friday, December 9, 2022, the activity drew various stakeholders from FEB UGM, including lecturers, academic staff, and students. Moreover, attendees from Bina Nusantara University (Binus) and representatives from the local government were also present. Each participant seized the opportunity to showcase their research, including projects related to ANGEL.

In the afternoon, the event transitioned into a press conference centered around the ANGEL project itself. Notably, media representatives from e-newspapers such as Kumparan, Indonesia Kini, and Radar Jogja were in attendance. This concerted effort aims to amplify the recognition of ANGEL's entrepreneurial spirit and green leadership, especially considering the numerous articles written and published online about the initiative.

- c. Date and place: Friday, December 9th 2022, Learning Center Building, FEB, UGM.
- d. Agenda of the event: FEB UGM Research Day

e. Numbers of participants: ± 120 persons

f. Impact of the event:

The dissemination of research and the press conference had a tangible impact on all collaborating parties, enhancing their understanding of ANGEL's goals. Attendees exhibited a burgeoning interest in delving deeper into the realms of green leadership and entrepreneurship. Furthermore, the involvement of print media outlets facilitated the broader dissemination of knowledge about green leadership and entrepreneurship, amplifying ANGEL's reach to a wider audience.

2. Universitas Islam Indonesia (UII)

a. Name of Organiser: Universitas Islam Indonesia

b. Short description of the event:

The ANGEL Erasmus Info Day, organized by Universitas Islam Indonesia, was a pivotal event aimed at empowering startups in the Province of Yogyakarta. The event sought to provide intensive coaching and mentoring to startups, helping them address business development challenges and enhance their knowledge and skills. The event attracted a diverse group of participants, including local and regional officers, investors, and business representatives, creating a dynamic and collaborative atmosphere.

The Info Day featured a series of coaching clinics designed to cover various aspects of business management and development. Topics ranged from operational efficiency and marketing strategies to financial management and legal considerations. Each session was led by experienced mentors and industry experts who provided practical insights and actionable advice tailored to the needs of the participating startups.

In addition to the educational sessions, the event facilitated networking opportunities among participants and stakeholders. This allowed startups to forge valuable connections with potential investors, partners, and collaborators, enhancing their prospects for growth and success. The collaborative environment also encouraged the exchange of ideas and best practices, fostering a spirit of innovation and entrepreneurship.

The event underscored the commitment of Universitas Islam Indonesia to support the local entrepreneurial ecosystem. By equipping startups with the necessary tools and knowledge, the ANGEL Erasmus Info Day aimed to drive sustainable economic growth and development in the region, positioning Yogyakarta as a hub for innovation and entrepreneurship.

c. Date and place:

June 28, 2024 - July 9, 2024

Place: Gedung Simpul Tumbuh, Lantai 3, Jl. Kaliurang Km. 14,5, Lodadi, Umbulmartani, Ngemplak, Sleman, Daerah Istimewa Yogyakarta 55584

d. Agenda of the event:

1) Coaching Clinic 1: June 28, 2024

The first coaching clinic focused on operational management and efficiency. Muhamma Sugarindra led the session, providing participants with strategies to streamline their business operations and improve efficiency. This was followed by Rininta Hanum's session on campaign marketing and content management, where startups learned effective techniques to create and manage marketing campaigns that resonate with their target audience.

2) Coaching Clinic 2: June 29, 2024

The second clinic delved into product development, packaging, and branding, led by Anggia Pitaloka. Participants were guided on how to innovate their products, enhance packaging, and build strong brand identities. The session by Hilary Desuari on the art of sales, negotiation, and B2B interactions equipped startups with skills to improve their sales processes and establish beneficial business-to-business relationships.

3) Coaching Clinic 3: July 5, 2024

In the third clinic, Rininta Hanum returned to discuss advanced business models, helping startups refine their business strategies and models to adapt to market demands. Asri Meikawati Hazim's session on environmental, social, and governance (ESG) practices highlighted the importance of integrating sustainable and ethical practices into business operations, which is increasingly crucial in today's business landscape.

4) Coaching Clinic 4: July 6, 2024

The fourth clinic covered business contract management and intellectual property rights (IPR) with Prof. Dr. Budi Agus Riswandi. This session provided startups with a comprehensive understanding of legal aspects related to contracts and intellectual property. Arif Fajar Wibisono's session on financial management performance and tax planning taught participants how to manage their finances effectively and plan for taxes, ensuring long-term financial health.

5) Coaching Clinic 5: July 8, 2024

The fifth clinic focused on export readiness. Fitria Agustina Sri Aswandi discussed how local government support can facilitate export activities for startups. Imamul Makarim followed with a detailed session on the preparation for export, providing practical steps and requirements for startups looking to expand their markets internationally.

6) Coaching Clinic 6: July 9, 2024

The final clinic addressed business valuation and preparation for capital access, led by Bagus Panuntun. This session helped startups understand how to value their businesses and prepare for seeking investment. The day concluded with Asri Meikawati Hazim's session on public speaking for pitching, where participants learned techniques to effectively pitch their ideas to investors and stakeholders.

e. Numbers of participants: The event had 43 participants, each representing various startups focused on different sectors.

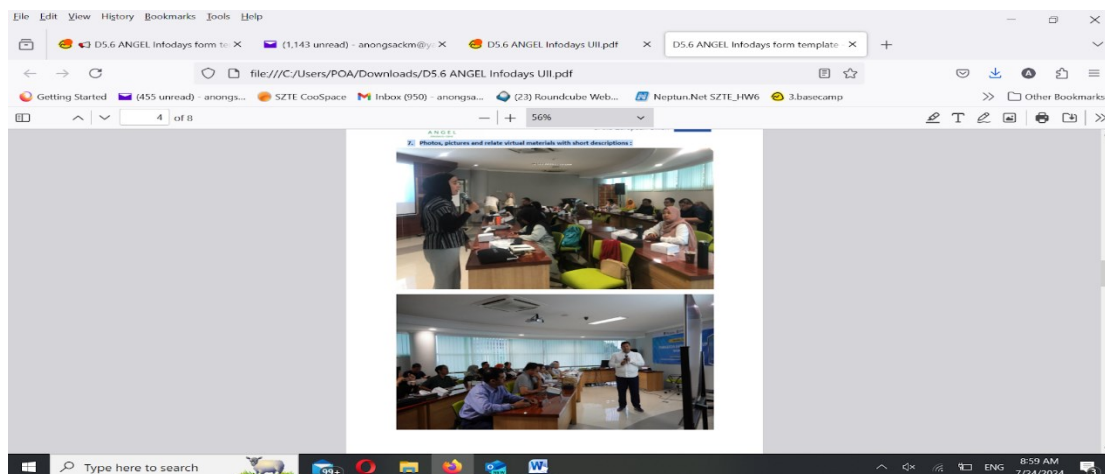

f. Impact of the event:

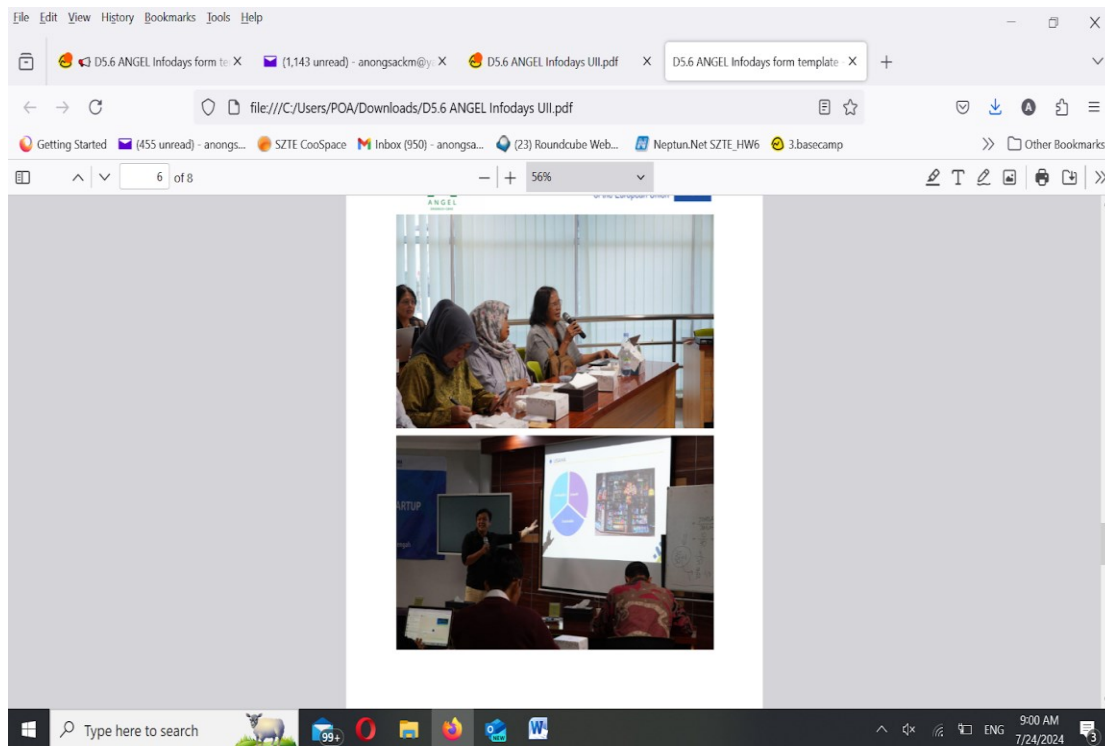

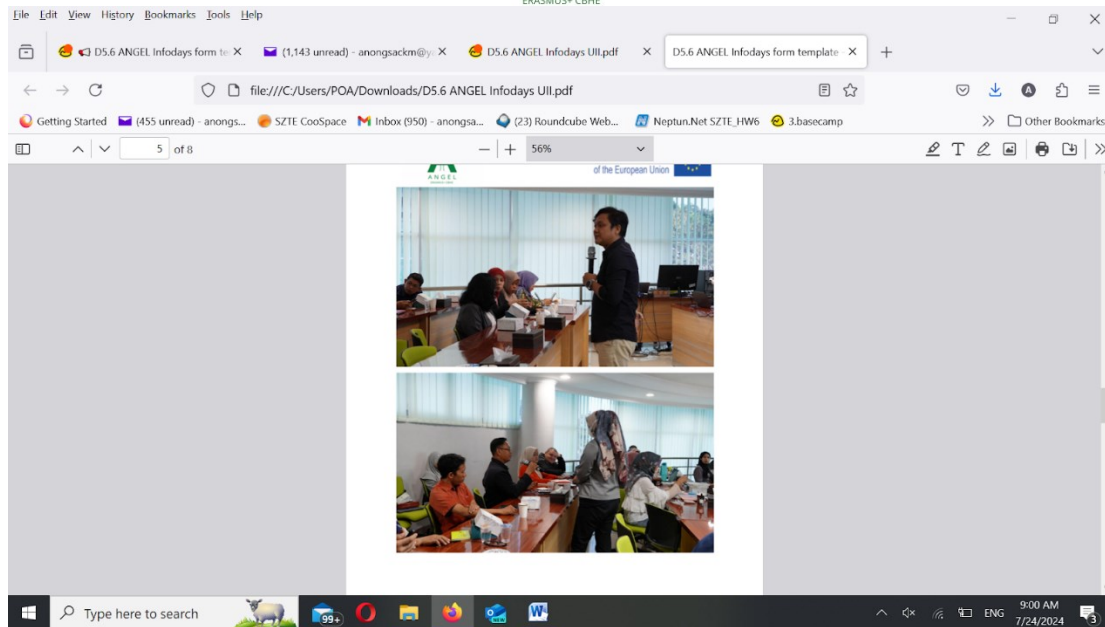

The ANGEL Erasmus Info Day provided substantial benefits and impacts on the participating startups: i) Knowledge and Skills Enhancement: Participants gained invaluable insights and practical skills through intensive coaching sessions led by experienced mentors and industry experts. These sessions covered a wide range of topics, including operational management, marketing strategies, product development, financial management, and legal aspects of business, thereby equipping participants with the necessary tools to improve their business operations. ii) Networking Opportunities: The event facilitated meaningful interactions between startups and various stakeholders, including local and regional officers, investors, and business representatives. This networking created potential opportunities for collaboration, funding, and business partnerships, which are crucial for the growth and expansion of startups. iii) Increased Business Competitiveness: By addressing specific challenges faced by startups, the coaching clinics helped participants develop innovative solutions and strategies to enhance their competitiveness in the market. The focus on practical applications and real-world scenarios ensured that participants could immediately implement the learned concepts to achieve tangible improvements in their businesses. iv) Support for Sustainable Business Practices: Emphasis on topics like environmental, social, and governance (ESG) practices encouraged startups to adopt sustainable and ethical business practices. This not only aligns with global trends towards sustainability but also enhances the reputation and appeal of the startups among consumers and investors who prioritize responsible business conduct. v) Empowerment and Motivation: The event provided a supportive environment where participants could openly discuss their challenges and receive constructive feedback from mentors. This empowerment and encouragement fostered a sense of confidence and motivation among the startups, driving them to strive for higher levels of achievement and success in their entrepreneurial endeavors. In conclusion, the ANGEL Erasmus Info Day was a comprehensive event that significantly contributed to the development and empowerment of startups in Yogyakarta, setting a strong foundation for their future growth and success.

1. Savannakhet University (SKU)

a. Short description of the event: Savannakhet University (SKU) has been a member of the ANGEL consortium, ASEAN Network for Green Entrepreneurship and Leadership. As a member of the ANGEL consortium, according to the implementation of the project and results, SKU has mandated to disseminate the knowledge about and become the agents of green entrepreneurship and leadership to wider society. To do so, SKU had held an Infoday for students of SKU, especially marginalized students from rural areas and concerned organizations within Savannakhet province on 12 March 2024.

SKU invited 60 persons including students from different faculties and master students, local businesses relating to green business operations including SENGSAVANG, Intech Farm, Naka Farm, Domekham Farm, Savan Garden, and Nakhon Garden. In addition, local government agencies offices within Savannakhet province were also invited to participated including Department of Natural Resources and Mining, Department of Industry and Commerce, Department of Agriculture and Forestry, Savannakhet Governor Office, and Chamber of Industry and Commerce of Savannakhet Province. However, some of the invited organizations could not participate our infoday.

d. Numbers of participants: 43 persons (7 SKU mentors, 26 students, 2 directors, 7 academics & 1 administrative staff member; 5 persons from private sector)

e. Impact of the event:

Regarding analysis of the evaluation forms collected from 36 participants, it show that

- What is your primary interest in ANGEL?: The primary interest in ANGEL are relating to how to start the green business, using green business as medium for saving environment, funding sources for green entrepreneurship & how to lead effectively.

- Is there a way that you could contribute to ANGEL's goals? Developing green entrepreneurship & business planning, taking initiatives on using wastes for creating new products.
- Are there any other objectives that should be pursued during the project or in a future endeavour? In the next phase of the similar project, it would be better if there are more samples of environmental friendly business practices and models, technology in transferring the waste to products, promoting more 3Rs, more diverse groups of business planning for startups or spin-offs.
- Do you find ANGEL results useful/beneficial for your organization? It reveals that the results of the project benefits for participants' organizations at high level (4.25)
- Project results are easy to use at the high level with 3.92
- Project results are expandable at high level with 4.14
- Are you satisfied with the way the project results/achievements were communicated to you? at high level with 4.14
- Which of the ANGEL results are of interest to your organisation and why? Training modules, how to set up green business & how to seek fund
- How can they be improved and make them more interesting and applicable? Promoting marketing for green business, improving ways of organizing training, improving ways to access training materials easily
- Do you have any proposal on how to reach more stakeholders and/or increase the impact of ANGEL's results? Need more dissemination channels both off-line & online, access more local people.
